- ◆ The type of pass will change depending on the situation during the match.

The Offside Rule

When you pass, if there are fewer than two players from the opposition (e.g. the goalkeeper and a defender) between the receiving player and your opponent's goal, you will incur an offside offence.

⚡ Defence

When a player from the opposition is in possession of the ball, tap them and any nearby players on your team will home in on the opposing player and attempt to gain control of the ball.

INAZUMA ELEVEN GO CHRONO STONES

- ◆ When your player and a rival player attempt a special move at the same time, the move that will be performed is decided by the players' stats and strength of the special move.

17 Special Tactics

Touch T to spend TTP (Team TP) and perform one of your team's special tactics.

- ◆ When your team and the rival team attempt a special tactic at the same time, the special tactic that will be performed is decided by each team's overall stats and the strength of the tactics.

There are three types of special tactics: Attack, Defence and Both. There are various situations in which they can be used.

INAZUMA ELEVEN GO CHRONO STONES

18 Fighting Spirits

⚡ Using a Fighting Spirit

Touch 🌟 to summon one of your players' Fighting Spirits, or to Armourfy the Fighting Spirit.

- ◆ You can have up to three Fighting Spirits on the pitch at one time in a match.

Summoning a Fighting Spirit

Select a Fighting Spirit from the list and select "Summon" to Summon a Fighting Spirit.

The success rate of taking or saving shots and the likelihood of winning command duels greatly increases once a player has summoned a Fighting Spirit. Powerful spirit moves will also become available to use.

- ◆ While a Fighting Spirit is on the pitch, the player's commands will change and they will not be able to perform special moves.

Armourfy

Select a Fighting Spirit from the list and select "Armourfy" to surround the player's body in the Fighting Spirit's aura.

While armourfied, the success rate of taking or saving shots and winning command duels is increased even more than when summoning a Fighting Spirit. Your special moves will also become more powerful.

- ◆ You cannot use spirit moves while armourfied.

A Mix 'n' Match's Fighting Spirit

While Mix 'n' Matched (p. 19), a player can use any attached Fighting Spirit.

FSP (Fighting Spirit Points)

While a Fighting Spirit is on the pitch, FSP will be drained. When a Fighting Spirit's FSP runs out, it will vanish, and the player's FP will decrease significantly.

The amount of FSP drained differs between summoning a Fighting Spirit and armourfying a Fighting Spirit.

Fighting Spirit Summon

FSP will be required to select commands, perform spirit moves and engage in Spirit Duels.

Fighting Spirit Armourfy

FSP will be required to perform special moves or when engaging in a Spirit Duel. FSP will also be drained over time even when the player is not performing an action.

Spirit Linking

Once a Fighting Spirit has vanished, it can be summoned or armourfied again by pooling the TP of all the other players on the team together.

Spirit Duels

If two players who have summoned or armourfied Fighting Spirits on opposite teams intercept each other, a Spirit Duel will take place.

Spirit Duels are the same as command duels in that both players face off and select a command.

When in possession of the ball, you can select either "Attack" or "Charge". If you are trying to regain possession you can "Block" your opponent's advance. You can also perform a spirit move or special move here.

- ◆ Select "Armour" while a Fighting Spirit is summoned to armourfy the Spirit.

FSP

⚡ Developing Fighting Spirits

Fighting Spirits will grow stronger the more you summon or armourfy them. Numerals will be added to their name as they level up.

INAZUMA ELEVEN GO CHRONO STONES

Touch M to perform a Mix 'n' Match. Choose a Miximaxed player and select "Mix 'n' Match".

⚡ Mix 'n' Match Effects

Mix 'n' Matched players have a greatly increased success rate in command duels and when saving or taking shots, and can use the Fighting Spirits of the player they Miximaxed with.

- ◆ You can summon a Fighting Spirit when Mix 'n' Matched.

If you win a match, your players will receive experience points, as well as items, Prestige Points and Friendship Points.

1 Player Info

The gauge represents each player's experience points. When it becomes full the player will level up and grow stronger.

2 Points Gained

Experience points gained when you win a match are made up of Victory Points and an additional Nice Play Bonus (p. 14).

3 Prestige Points and Friendship Points Earned

4 Items Won

Penalties

If a foul is committed by the defending team in their penalty area, a penalty will be awarded to the attacking team. If the two teams are tied at the end of a match, a penalty shootout will take place.

Touch a shot path for the kicker or the defence path for the goalkeeper. In a shootout to decide the result of the match, you can charge the power of the kick or catch strength by touching the "Power" icon, setting it to On. This can be done up to three times per shootout.

 Stats

Each player has eight different stats. As they gain experience points and level up, their stats will increase and they'll grow stronger.

 Types of Stats

Kick	The ability to successfully take a shot.
Dribble	The ability to hold the ball while dribbling.
Block	The ability to block an opponent's shot or interrupt their dribbling.
Catch	The ability to save a shot or receive a pass well.
Technique	The ability to pull off special moves.
Speed	The higher this stat, the faster the player will move on the field.
Stamina	The higher this stat, the less likely the player's FP is to decrease.

Luck

The higher this stat, the higher the player's critical rate (the possibility of a special move's strength temporarily increasing).

⚡ Elements

Players and special moves come in four different element types.

Command Duels and Elements

The elements will influence the outcome of command duels. In addition, if a teammate of the same element type is nearby, the player's power and chance of winning will increase. If two teammates of the same element types are nearby, then the effect is even more powerful and the chance of winning is even higher.

Special Moves and Elements

The strength of a special move will increase if the player's element type is the same as that of the special move.

Non-Elemental Special Moves

These special moves are neutral and therefore not affected by elements.
